About the course

Free course subject to eligibility.

Functional skills English qualifications are designed for all levels of ability. They focus on the development of reading, writing and verbal communication skills and are aimed at building your confidence in each of these areas, whether at work or in daily life.

English courses are offered as a 2.5 hour lesson once a week for one academic year. Options are available in the day and evening.

1:1 tutorials will also be part of the course. During these individual meetings your tutor will discuss progress and agree personal targets with you, to ensure both a successful completion of the qualification as well as meaningful academic or job progression.

Regular attendance to lessons as well as completion of homework are essential to ensure that you are ready for your external exams and gain your qualification by the end of the course at the latest. We monitor attendance closely.

The course has several assessment points during the year, and you will be able to sit your exams in part or fully when you are ready.

The course we are able to offer you will depend on the outcome of the initial assessment.

Progression and career opportunities
Functional skills can be studied from Entry level 1 through to Entry level 3; these qualifications are stepping stones to the GCSE. Once you have successfully completed one level of a functional skill you will have to option to progress onto the next level or GCSE.

Entry requirements
There are no formal entry requirements for these qualifications but prior to enrolment all applicants will be required to complete an initial assessment to determine their current skill level before enrolling on the course. The results of the initial assessment will be used to inform the level of qualification for which you will be entered.

Assessment
We want you to achieve to the very best of your ability at CRC. To make this happen we offer both learning and personal support by specialist staff tailored to meet your specific needs.
Your progress will be monitored via formative assessments during the course to enable you and your tutor to identify areas that require further skill development.
