About the course

Equality and diversity is a term used to promote opportunity for all, giving every individual the chance to achieve their potential, free from prejudice and discrimination. As well as recognising, respecting and valuing differences in people.

Our CPD equality and diversity training course introduces key aspects of equality and diversity and the importance of this within the workplace, society and in communities. This equality training covers the main principles of equality and diversity, the rights and responsibilities of both employers and employees in the workplace, diverse communities and the importance of working or learning in a place that promotes diversity.
